BEVERLEGA

Presented by THE SENIORS OF '54
at
BEVERLY HIGH SCHOOL
BEVERLY, MASSACHUSETTS

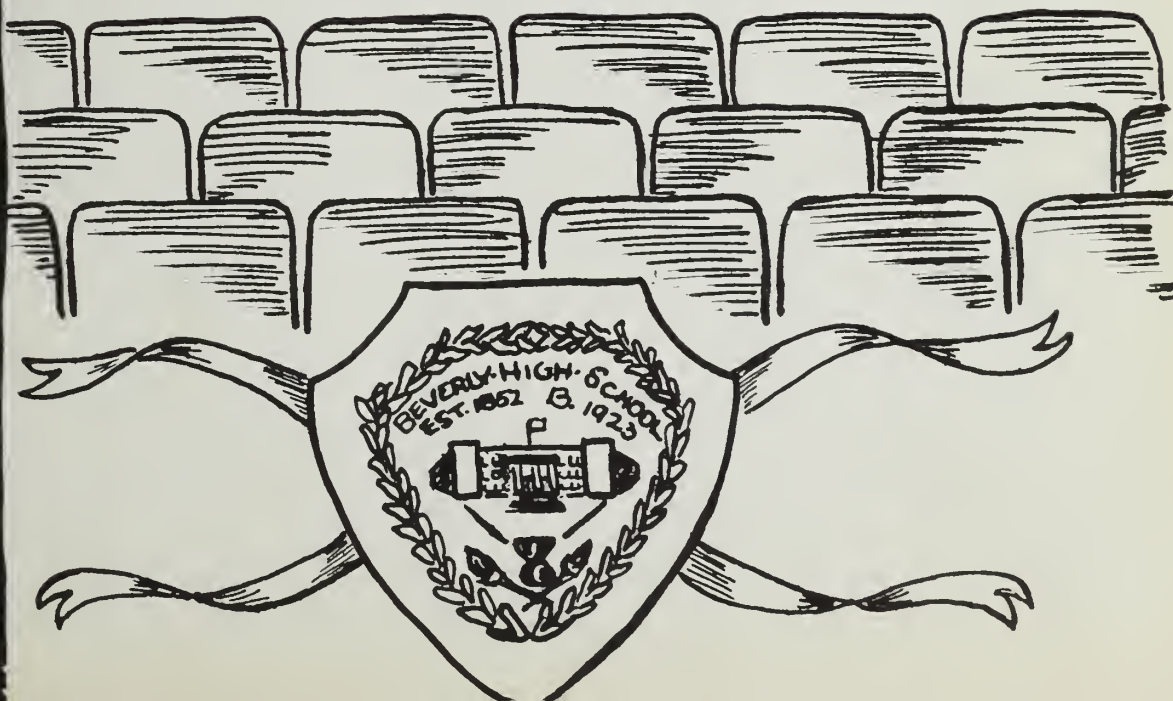

FOREWORD

Our three years at Beverly High School may be compared to a good movie, which we regret to leave at its conclusion. The movie has left us with pleasant memories, just as we hope that the Beverlega will serve to help you reminisce over events of your years at Beverly High School.

Dedication

We, the class of 1954, dedicate our yearbook to Faye White, one of our classmates. While in school, Faye participated in many activities and was liked by all who knew her. We sincerely hope she will have a speedy and complete recovery.

FACULTY

1954

JOHN H. HALEY

To the Members of the Class of 1954:

As you near the end of your three years at Beverly High School, I hope that each one of you has found your experiences here to have been very rewarding ones. I hope that as the years go by after graduation, you will always be glad that you attended this school.

Your teachers and I have tried very hard to provide a sound educational program for you here. We are happy that many of you have taken full advantage of this program, and we trust that all of you have benefited from it, even though in differing measure.

With all good wishes for your success and happiness in life,

Sincerely,

Willard H. Smith

Class Will

We, the fortunates of the Graduating Class of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-four, being of confused state and sound mind, make the following bequests:

MR. SMITH—A hearty thank you from the Class of '54 for your understanding and helpful guidance.

MISS WATTERS—The strength and humor to sponsor another class such as ours.

MISS WALLACE—A class of students with an inexhaustable supply of notes and excuses.

MR. ROOT—A staff of Pulitzer Prize reporters.

MISS CARTER AND THE ENTIRE BEVERLEGA ADVISORY STAFF—Our sincere thanks and blessings for the endless hours of patience and hard work you contributed toward making our yearbook a success.

MRS. CORBETT—A make-up kit with a lifetime refill.

MISS HATCH—A round-trip ticket to Cuba.

MISS GAY—Radar machine to spot those students who attempt studying subjects other than those stated on their library slips.

MR. CARTER—One dozen D. A. B.'s.

MR. MacINNIS—A machine to locate and gather lost tennis balls.

MISS RYAN—A sound-proof room for her oral classes.

JUNIORS—A prosperous "goodies ring."

SOPHOMORES—A year of experience to make you accomplished locker-openers.

Last, but not forgotten, are the remaining teachers to whom we leave the patience to endure the trials and tribulations of future generations.

The foregoing document, having been legally designated as a final will and testament of the illustrious Class of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-four, has the official seal of approval of the class on this Thursday, the tenth day of the twelfth month in the year of our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-three.

Junior Class

OFFICERS—Seated: Joanne Menesale, Secretary.
Standing: David Bell, President; James Donahue, Treasurer;
Albert Pepin, Vice President.

On September 3, 1952, the Class of 1955 entered Beverly High School frightened and unprepared for the adventures which lay ahead. Their first class election took place in November under the direction of Mr. Mills, their class advisor. David Bell was elected President; Robert LeBlanc, Vice President; James Chapman, Secretary; and Norman Baker, Treasurer.

"Mr. Vincent," a comedy, was presented by the Sophomore Class on Drama Night. The cast included Norman Baker, Paul Longval, William Appleton, Priscilla Monahan, Judith Williams, Cynthia Hussey, and Marjorie Jones. Norman Baker received the award for a fine job of acting.

In December, much to the sorrow of each student, came the death of Lorraine LaBonte. Well-liked by the entire student body and faculty, Lorraine was extremely active in numerous girls' sports at B.H.S.

June brought the summer vacation and high hopes for an enjoyable Junior year.

After a pleasant and restful two months, the Class of '55 returned to the fast pace of life at B.H.S. The Junior Class was quick to gain honor and fame in football. The season came to an end with the election of Dave Bell and Bill Gibbons as co-captains for the coming year.

In October, the annual elections were held. Dave Bell was again elected President; Al Pipin, Vice President; Joanne Menesale, Secretary; and Norman Baker, Treasurer. Also, in October, a very successful and enjoyable dance was sponsored by the class.

Gail Henderson, Priscilla Monahan, Luther Herrick, Norman Baker, Peter Dragonas, and Gail Glidden made up the cast of "Antic Spring," a delightful play presented by the class on Drama Night. Norman Baker again received the honors and won the award for the best acting.

The Class of 1955 are anxiously awaiting the many memorable activities of their senior year.

Sophomore Class

Seated: Irene Manzi, Secretary.
Standing: Harrison Ball, President; William Gibbons, Vice President. Absent: Mary Lou Bunk, Treasurer.

At the opening of school, the three hundred and thirty students of the Class of 1956 bravely entered Beverly High with an air of confusion and awe. With the second floor as their destination, they soon encountered the task of opening lockers and facing new teachers and upperclassmen. To their amazement, they found the students and faculty friendly, the lockers easy to open, and school spirit in abundance. In a very short time, they became an essential part of life at B.H.S.

Much to the sorrow of all the students, the sophomore class lost a member in a fatal accident which occurred early in the year. Suzanne Prescott will always be remembered by her fellow classmates.

The Class of '56 lost no time in becoming acquainted with the activities at B.H.S. At Drama Night they presented the delightful comedy, "Junior Miss." The cast included Sally Boyson, Joanne Bagley, Carol Andreas, Pat Arsenault, Frank Carbone, Joel Black, Lee Turner, Frances Hunkins, Stanley Belastock, Roger Litka, James Low, David Jaquith, Carol Hazell, and Helen Henshaw. "Junior Miss" took top honors as the best play and Sally Boyson was awarded a prize for being the outstanding actress.

Class elections were held early in the year and the following class officers were elected: President, Harry Ball; Vice President, Billy Gobeille; Secretary, Irene Manzi; Treasurer, Marylou Bunk.

The close of the first year at Beverly High came all too quickly for the Sophomore Class.
